Kevin Tran: Leading with Purpose and Passion

Few professionals bring the depth of experience and leadership that Kevin Tran, also known as Tran Anh Thang, does in the world of hospitality, education, and quality assurance. As the BYU MS Vietnam Chapter President, Kevin exemplifies dedication, expertise, and a commitment to continuous improvement in every field he touches.

Kevin's academic foundation is as diverse as his career. He earned a bachelor's degree in Hospitality, Finance, and Revenue Management from the prestigious Glion Institute of Higher Education and a master's degree in Business Quality and Performance Management from Solvay Business School. These credentials have equipped him with the skills to navigate complex industries with a strategic and analytical mindset.

From BYU-Hawaii to Leading in Thailand: An Accountancy and Business Journey of Pattara Chaithip

In the beginning, Pattara chose International Business Management (IBM) as his first major to prepare for a career in multinational companies (MNCs). With many MNCs operating in Thailand, he saw this field as a gateway to opportunities. However, he wasn't sure which aspect of business he would ultimately pursue. When reviewing his academic plan, he noticed that the requirements for accounting overlapped significantly with IBM. This allowed him to add accountancy as a second major and still graduate within four years.

Ohana Paradise: Winner of the Great Idea Category in BYU MS Asia Business Plan Competition 2024

Winning second place in the BYU MS Asia Business Plan Competition 2024 – Great Idea Category was more than just an accolade—it was a turning point. This provided me with a $750 prize and opened doors to new opportunities I hadn't imagined before. Originally, Ohana Paradise was envisioned as a family entertainment and wellness center. However, through this journey, the concept evolved into something even more meaningful. I partnered with an existing tutorial center to create Excel Learning & Daycare Center.
